

A MESSAGE FROM JAMES

"Here at JFF we live by the phrase "Tackling Everyday Life."

"It is our motto, our mission, scope and principle goal."

"We uphold this characterization, as a statement of the organizations

Implied ability in its efforts of helping other's to defy all adversities and overcome obstacles."

The James Farrior Foundation promotes student and athlete success by:

- Serving as a resource for students, athletes and parents
- Providing mentorship and assistance to young adults who aspire to become pro athletes and young adults who strive to become successful in respectable fields of work
- Providing individual counseling, group counseling, family counseling, chemical dependency counseling, rehabilitation counseling, education counseling, career development counseling, sexual issues counseling, diagnostic assessment, and related services
- Providing scholarships to young adults to farther academic pursuits through college application
- Providing sports camps, workshops and other training to improve academic and or athletic skills in prep for higher levels of competition
- Providing resources to support events earmarked for the benefit of disadvantaged or disabled children
- Collaborating and networking with other groups and similar organizations pursuing the same issues

"It is my message to the youth. . . It is OUR way of life. . ."
"This phrase embodies our plight as we continue to promote academic enrichment, as well as, health and physical fitness. Our concern is my concern, which is, the overall well being of all kids in need."

~ Matt Farrior

WHAT IS THE JAMES FARRIOR FOUNDATION

James Farrior Foundation (JFF) is a non- profit 501(c)3 organization that was started in June of 2007 by James Farrior and his brother Matt Farrior.

(All Pro Linebacker /Super Bowl XL Champion Pittsburgh Steelers)

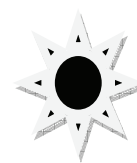

James, actively participates in his hometown community of Ettrick, VA and his playing cities of both New York, and Pittsburgh, establishing the James Farrior Foundation allows him to expand his impact upon several communities.

ABOUT JAMES FARRIOR

Throughout his career, James has given underprivileged youth and nonprofit(s) the opportunity to attend several fun filled Celebrity events and games to promote morale and awareness. He also established scholarships at his alma mater Matoaca High School, sponsored Little League football camps, and donated thousands to support the great causes, including "Bone- Marrow Cancer research," and other cancer awareness initiatives.
